MINISTRY OF LAW

New Delhi, the 24th December 1947

ORDINANCE No. XXX OF 1947

AN

to provide for the vesting of certain property belonging to the State of Junagadh in the Administrator appointed by the Central Government.

WHEREAS on or about the 9th day of November 1947 the administration of the State of Junagadh was handed over to the Central Government;

AND WHEREAS certain property consisting, among other things, of bank deposits, Government securities and shares of joint stock companies belonging to the said State stands in the name of His Highness the Nawab of Junagadh or the Dewan of Junagadh or other officers or persons;

AND WHEREAS an emergency has arisen which makes it necessary to vest the said property in the Administrator appointed by or on behalf of the Central Government;

Now, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 42 of the Government of India Act, 1935 (26 Geo. 5, c.2), as adapted by the India (Provisional Constitution) Order, 1917, the Governor General is pleased to make and promulgate the following Ordinance —

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Junagadh Administration (Property) Ordinance, 1947.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Ordinance,—

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator for the time being of the Junagadh State appointed by or on behalf of the Central Government;

(b) "securities" means the Central Government securities described in Part II of the Schedule;

(c) "Schedule" means the Schedule to this Ordinance.

3. Vesting and disposal of property and powers of Administrator.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the property described in the Schedule, whether in the name of His Highness the Nawab or the Dewan or the Private Secretary to His Highness the Nawab or the Manager and Engineer-in-Chief, Junagadh State Railway or the Chief Accounts Officer, Junagadh State or any other person whatsoever or in the name of more than one of them shall be deemed on and from the 9th day of November 1947 to have vested in the Administrator and the Administrator shall, as from that date, hold and be entitled to and have the power to deal with and dispose of the said property as such Administrator.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the Administrator shall have the power to—

(a) receive and give full and effectual discharge for moneys, securities and other property described in the Schedule;

(b) sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with such property.

4. Issue of duplicate securities.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Reserve Bank of India shall issue to the Administrator duplicate securities in his name in lieu of the securities specified in Part II of the Schedule as if the securities so specified had been lost and such duplicate securities shall have the same effect as if they had been issued under section 11 of the Public Debts (Central Government) Act, 1944 (XVIII of 1944).

5. Transfers otherwise than by Administrator void.—Any transfer or dealing with any of the property described in the Schedule after the 8th day of November 1947, otherwise than by the Administrator, shall be, and shall always be deemed to have been, void and of no effect.

6. Bar of jurisdiction.—(1) No Court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or other proceeding in respect of any of the property described in the Schedule or to enforce any liability in respect thereof, otherwise than at the instance of the Administrator.

(2) Any claim in respect of such property by any person other than the Administrator may be submitted to the Central Government, whose decision in the matter shall be final.

7. Protection of action taken under this Ordinance.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government, the Reserve Bank of India, any bank or company named in Parts I and III of the Schedule or any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Ordinance.
